Memo to Y4 parents – Viking Day and How to Train Your Dragon Film Permissions

Dear Parents/Carers,

How to Train Your Dragon Film

Following our unit on Anglo Saxons and Vikings this term, Year 4 have read 'How to Train your Dragon' by Cressida Cowell as a class. This has inspired several weeks of our writing and has links to our History unit, 'Anglo Saxons and Vikings'. Therefore, we would like the opportunity to show the first film from the 'How to Train Your Dragon' franchise to the children. This will be used as a comparison between the novel and film in our reading lessons. The film is classified as a 'PG' by the BBFC, therefore you may wish to find the 'Parents guide' on the IMDB website to inform your decision. If you give permission for your child to watch the movie, please sign the slip below and return it by Friday 20th November.

Year 4 Viking Day

On Tuesday 8th December, Year 4 pupils will spend the day continuing their learning about the period from the Anglo-Saxons through to the Vikings. The children are invited to dress up as Anglo-Saxons or Vikings on the day – you may enjoy researching clothing worn during this era at home and choosing a simple costume for your child to wear. The day will be filled with activities and we will be taking a look at the differences between raiding, settling, culture and crafts. We will be playing games from the times and exploring different artefacts.

Thank you for your continuing support.
